Tips

Be clear about why your nominee stands out

This is the perfect time to express what makes your nominee special and how they have gone above and beyond to help their community.

Tell a story!

Set the scene and provide background on your nominee. Using examples will create a picture for the panel and help them understand your nominee's efforts.

What is the impact of your nominee's contribution? Be sure to mention the immediate effects and the wider impact.

The more comprehensive and complete that the nomination information is, the better!

MWPA reserves the right to verify the validity of nominations and disqualify any nomination which, in the opinion of the MWPA, can be considered objectionable, potentially insulting or inflammatory or generally damaging to the goodwill or reputation of the award, or any nomination that is not compliant with the terms and conditions.
